

Programme

National Ophthalmology Database (NOD) Audit Workshop

Chaired by

Professor John Sparrow,
Ophthalmologist and NOD Audit Clinical Lead

Tuesday 9 October 2018

Venue:

The Royal College of Ophthalmologists
18 Stephenson Way
London
NW1 2HD

PROGRAMME

- 09:30 – 10:00 Coffee and Registration
- 10:00 – 10:10 Welcome
Professor John Sparrow, Clinical Lead for the NOD Audit
- 10:10 – 10:50 Second Prospective Audit report – Outcomes and Recommendations
Professor John Sparrow, Clinical Lead for the NOD Audit
- 10:50 – 11:10 Benefits of auditing your cataract data
Mr Chris Heaven, Consultant Ophthalmologist, Wrightington, Wigan and Leigh NHS trust
- 11:10 – 11:30 Tea break / Drop-in session with Medisoft & OpenEyes
- 11:30 – 12:10 Risk model and risk adjustment
Mr Paul Donachie, Medical Statistician, NOD Audit
- 12:10 – 12:30 The National Cataract Audit: Identifying and overcoming barriers to local uptake and quality improvement in your department
Mr Bobby Paul, Consultant Ophthalmologist, Barking, Havering and Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
- 12:30 – 13:10 Lunch & Networking / Drop in session with Medisoft & OpenEyes
- 13:10 – 13:40 Patient Reported Outcomes
Professor John Sparrow, Clinical Lead for the NOD Audit
- 13:40 – 14:00 NOD Audit after August 2019
Ms Beth Barnes, Head of Professional Support, RCOphth and Ms Martina Olaitan, Project Support Officer, NOD Audit
- 14:00 – 14:30 Tea break/ Drop in session with Medisoft & OpenEyes
- 14:30 – 15:30 “What's new, what's changed?”- Discussion and Feedback
Professor John Sparrow, Clinical Lead for the NOD Audit
- 15:30 Close