

Programme

National Ophthalmology Database (NOD) Audit Workshop

Chaired by

Professor John Sparrow,
Ophthalmologist and NOD Audit Clinical Lead

Thursday 24 October 2019

Venue:

The Royal College of Ophthalmologists
18 Stephenson Way, London NW1 2HD

PROGRAMME

- 09:30 – 10:00 Coffee and Registration
- 10:00 – 10:10 Welcome
Professor John Sparrow, Clinical Lead for the NOD Audit
(10)
- 10:10 – 10:40 Third Prospective Audit report – Outcomes and Recommendations
Professor John Sparrow, Clinical Lead for the NOD Audit
(30)
- 10:40 – 11:20 Risk model, risk adjustment and checking your results
Mr Paul Donachie, Medical Statistician, NOD Audit
(40)
- 11:20 – 11:40 Tea break / Drop-in session with Medisoft & OpenEyes (20)
- 11:40 – 12:10 Visual Outcomes: VA and Patient Reported Outcomes (PROMs)
Professor John Sparrow, Clinical Lead for the NOD Audit
(30)
- 12:10 – 12:40 Working with the NOD across multiple data collection platforms
Mr Paul Donachie, Medical Statistician, NOD Audit
(30)
- 12:40 – 13:20 Lunch & Networking / Drop in session with Medisoft & OpenEyes (40)
- 13:20 – 13:50 Extension of the NOD into other clinical fields – AMD?
Professor John Sparrow, Clinical Lead for the NOD Audit
(30)
- 13:50 – 14:10 Patients’ Perspectives: What is the National Ophthalmology Database Audit and why is it important? A lay perspective
Mr Matt Broom, CEO Vision UK
(20)
- 14:10 – 14:30 Tea break/ Drop in session with Medisoft & OpenEyes
(20)
- 14:30 – 15:30 “What's new, what's changed?”- Discussion and Feedback
Ms Beth Barnes, Head of Professional Support, RCOphth and
Ms Lynne Sander, NOD Project Manager, RCOphth (10)
Professor John Sparrow, Clinical Lead for the NOD Audit (50)
- 15:30 Close